GENERAL RULES

1. Exhibitors in the Real County Junior Livestock Show shall be a member in good standing in a 4-H club member or FFA Chapter and attend Leakey, Nueces Canyon, Big Springs Ranch Charter School or Divide School District schools or a Private school.
2. Exhibitors must be enrolled in the first grade in the above-mentioned schools and not over 21 years of age by December 31, the year preceding the show. Each exhibitor must take care of his or her own livestock.
3. A sifting committee appointed by the Real County Junior Livestock Show Executive Committee shall pass on all animals entered in the show, as it is intended that only animals that are creditable from stand points of type, quality, and finish shall be entered and shown. The sifting committee shall also pass on breeding stock.
4. All animals shall be brought to the show barn between 8:00 am and 11:30 am the first day of the show, provided accommodations are available. All animals will be weighed and sifted the first day of the show. All sifted animals will be removed from the barn immediately. All other animals must remain in the barn or designated area until the conclusion of the show. Designated area will be assigned by the Barn Superintendent. This does not include cattle and horses, which may be released thru the Class Superintendent or Barn Superintendent immediately after showing. The County Agent and Vocational Ag. Teachers are to supervise weighing.
5. If an exhibitor has an animal that is under the minimum or over the maximum weight limit the exhibitor may request an immediate reweigh without leaving the weigh-in area. The second weigh-in will be final.

6. Exhibitors will state at the time of weigh-in which animal they will be taking through the sale ring. Exhibitor numbers will be handed out at this time and are to be worn in the show and sale ring.
7. Each exhibitor shall be allowed to show two animals per class.
8. Any contestant molesting or damaging any other exhibitor's animal or animals shall be barred from showing and their animals struck from the sale.
9. All animals (with the exception of breeder rabbits which will be validated before October 1) must be entered and tagged in the show by the last scheduled tagging date prior to November 1, the year preceding the show. Animals will be brought to a designated area to be tagged.
10. The President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, County Agent, Vocational Agriculture Teachers and Board of Directors are designated as an Executive Committee to interpret the rules and pass on unforeseen situations. Texas AgriLife Extension Service prohibits their agents from voting; therefore the agent will serve only as an advisor. The Executive Committee shall choose judges for the show.
11. It shall be the responsibility of the secretary to see that all members of the sifting committee and judges are supplied with a copy of the show rules.
12. Weight divisions will be determined by a floating weight limit, set prior to judging of market animals so that each division will be represented by an equal number of animals.
13. Each class shall consist of at least five (5) animals when formed on November 1, and classes may be shown although some animals have become ineligible or have died, making the number in the class less than five.
14. All entries must be exhibited and sold by the owner with the following exceptions:
 - a) When an exhibitor has more than one (1) entry in a class;

- b) Preapproved school activities or extenuating circumstances.
Exhibitor must have documentation for school activities.

15. The County Agent or Vocational Agriculture Teacher must approve the exception and only an eligible exhibitor may show or sell the animal.
16. Showmanship is awarded in each division and judged during regular judging of animals. Divisions are: angora goat, sheep, cattle, swine, horse, broiler, rabbit and meat goat. PeeWee Showmanship ages 6-8 will receive an award. Junior Showmanship ages 9-13 will receive an award. Senior Showmanship ages 14 and older will receive an award. Awards to be determined by awards committee.
17. Age group determined by exhibitor's age as of first day of the show.
18. Enforcement of House Bill 72: If the owner of the animal is not passing his/her grades at his/her respective school, then he/she can neither show nor sell the animal(s).
19. Only shavings, sand or carpet will be used for bedding of all livestock. Each exhibitor is responsible for cleaning their pen(s) after conclusion of stock show. No extension cords, heat lamps, fans or electrical devices in the barn other than those provided by RCJLSA.
20. All exhibitors will comply with current regulations governing livestock shows and sales as established by the Texas Animal Health Commission.
21. Prize money will be awarded in each class for the first five places as follows: $15, $10, $5, $3, $1. Points are given in each class based on the number of animals in the class up to 15. High point plaque is based on these points.
22. All protests must be in writing and be accompanied by a deposit of $250.00 cash, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint of appeal, and must be delivered to the Livestock Show management immediately at the conclusion of judging. Judging procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigation. Depending on the basis of the protest, a decision may be withheld until complete investigation is done. Protests concerning ages of animals must be filed with the Livestock Show management two hours prior to the commencement of judging in the department.

23. A Thank You Note is to be written to buyers and trophy award donor(s) and a Project Report Form must be completed on your show animal(s). All thank you notes must be turned in to the Association and project forms current and turned in to your Vocational Agriculture Teacher, County Agent or 4-H Leader by February 15th of the current show year. If not, all sale money will be forfeited and offered to be returned to the donor.

Note: Thank you note guidelines and required Project Report Forms are available online at www.RCJLSA.org

24. Should a family member (parent, guardian, uncle, aunt, or sibling), representative of said family, or family member acting as representative for a sponsoring business purchase a lot or lots at the RCJLSA auction, the check will not be issued until payment is received by the Association for the lot in question.
25. Each exhibitor will pay a $20.00 exhibitor fee, to be paid at validation tag in.
26. Absolutely no tack, feed, supplies, or etc. will be allowed to be stored outside the animal pens. Tack, feed, and supplies will only be allowed in or above the assigned pens.

SALE RULES

1. The Real County Junior Livestock Show Association Sale is a Premium Sale; the seller retains ownership of their animal. Each exhibitor may sell one (1) unit in the sale, provided it qualifies and is exhibited. All animals will be sold by the unit, not by the pound.
2. Each exhibitor is responsible for his or her animal being in the auction ring in the proper sales order. Otherwise, there will be no sale on that animal. All animals to be sold must be entered in the books of the secretary by 4 PM the day preceding the sale.
3. All animals sold and donated back to RCJLSA shall automatically revert to the bottom of the sales order and no animal shall be given back to the exhibitor or single organization but to the Real County Junior Livestock Association for resale.
4. All exhibitors will sell according to placing (i.e.: Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Breed/Division Champions, Reserve Breed/Division Champions, first place, second place, third place, etc.). All Grand & Reserve Grand Champion animals will automatically advance to the head of the sales order. In the event that an exhibitor has more than one Grand or Reserve Grand Champion animal, they may choose which one to sale and notify the Secretary by the end of the final species show.
5. All market animals are eligible for the sale.
6. There will be no sale on horses.
7. Only Grand and Reserve Grand Champion breeder animals will be eligible for the sale.
8. Premium prize money may be raised for breeder animals and dispersed as the breeder committees see fit provided that the money is accounted for in accordance with the bylaws.
9. Registered buyers may jointly purchase an exhibit provided they fill out the form provided by the Association and present it to the Secretary/Treasurer prior to leaving the Show Barn on the day of the sale.
